

Observed Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George Waterman Brown Round Out Fifty Years of Married Life—Were United in Wedlock in North Stonington by Rev. Silas Wilcox—For Forty-Seven Years They Have Made Their Home in Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Waterman Brown celebrated their golden jubilee at their home Broad View farm in the eastern section of Scotland on Saturday. Mr. Brown was born in Westminister, Conn., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Waterman Brown and is 75 years of age. He received his early schooling in the public school of his native town. After graduating from the grammar school, he learned the trade of a wagon maker with his father, and followed this business for a number of years. Mr. Brown had two brothers and one sister, Mrs. Maria Peck of New Haven, who was unable to attend the jubilee. Mr. Brown's grandfather, Peter Spicer fought in the battle of Groton Heights in the war of 1812. His great-grandfather, Abel Spicer fought in the Revolutionary war, and his grandfather, Luther Brown also fought in the Civil war.

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Freeman and Franklin Brand, killed in the Civil war, and Eunice Pierce and was born in North Stonington 49 years ago. Mrs. Brown had seven brothers, two of whom are living, Samuel and George. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were united in marriage on January 27, 1871 in North Stonington by Rev. Silas Wilcox. Jane Swain was bridesmaid and Charles Wilcox was best man. The bridesmaid resided in New York, Conn. but was unable to attend, and during the day sent a message of congratulation.

Shortly after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Brown came to Scotland to live and have resided in the present home for the past forty-seven years.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown had eight children, seven of whom are living. These are: John H., Eunice E. Bishop, Mary Main, Waterman Brown, Bertha Thompson, Hattie Hawkes, and the following grandchildren: Myrtle Mathewson, Helen Main, Bernard Main, Rolan Main, Derwood Oldershaw, Bertha Hawkes.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown for the past thirty years have been members of the Scotland church. Mrs. Brown has always been prominent in church activities. She is well versed and in a brilliant conversationalist. Mr. Brown has always taken a deep interest in town affairs, but never sought public office, other than registrar of voters, and for a number of years a member of the Scotland school board. He has always been a staunch democrat, and predicted the reelection of President Woodrow Wilson at the last presidential election. He has been a reader of The Norwich Bulletin for the past forty-five years, and eagerly awaits the arrival of his paper daily. He has followed the European war since its inception and can readily name any battle or encounter which has taken place, and also name the exact location. He is well versed, and is an interesting talker. He told of the many changes in Scotland in the past forty-seven years, and that only three names are on the voting list that were registered when he came to that village nearly a half century ago.

He also related his first ride on the old Providence steam road, now the New York, New Haven and Hartford road, and said the train speed and accommodations we have now are better today than they were in those days.

Mr. Brown has been a weekly visitor in Baltic for the past forty-five years. He has conducted a truck farm for nearly fifty years and has always been known for his honest and upright business dealings. For a number of years he cultivated strawberries and shipped them to some of the largest wholesale markets in Hartford, New Haven, Providence and Boston.

He also was salesman for a nursery company for a number of years. At present his farm consists of sixty acres of land, and has twenty head of stock. He attributes his good health and robust constitution to hard work. For the past fifty years Mr. Brown has been a collector of antique and odd and ancient coins. His collection consists of foreign coins bearing the dates 1701 and American coins stamped 1693. He also has a swatch of cloth taken from a wedding dress worn by one of his ancestors two hundred and twenty-five years ago. The material is hand woven and is adorned with large hand painted flowers. He is the owner of a punch bowl one hundred and ninety-seven years old, and has been offered by purchasers a number of good offers but would not part with this keepsake. In his collection he also has a string of wampum, money and cannot tell just the exact age of the currency used by the Indian traders.

At 1:30 in the afternoon the guests assembled in the large dining room and a dinner consisting of roast turkey, mashed potatoes, turnips, cranberry rolls, cut glass, pie, cake and coffee were served under supervision of Mrs. George Thompson, assisted by Marion and Edith Pierce, Helen Main, Mrs. Sterry Kinney, Mrs. Horace Main, Mrs. Waterman Brown, Mrs. Merrill Palmer.

Those were proposed and responded to. The following toast was given by Mrs. George A. Thompson. This is indeed a grand occasion and one which, while it brings joy and thankfulness to our hearts, bears with it one of the most beautiful and touching lessons in the book of life. Our respected and venerable parents have indeed reached the golden age of maturity. Hand in hand they have ascended the hill, hand in hand. They are shining in the undying and unshifting lamp of faithfulness, love and devotion. What a privilege it is to be here to witness this beautiful sight, to see the bride and bridegroom of today in soul, in heart, the bride and bridegroom of this day a half century ago. Time has sown fresh flowers in their dear old hearts; time has but mellowed their affections. We have come here to felicitate them upon their fiftieth anniversary of their marriage, to wish them many a long year yet to be united in love and devotion, to bound them together; that their bark may sail upon a golden sea, and that their sunset may be golden is our united sentiment. Mr. Brown responded.

This occasion is indeed one of the happiest periods in my life. To see my family and friends assembled here today gives me much pleasure. Mrs. Brown and I have turned the half century mark. Forty years of faithful, loving, joyous, and devoted. I drink to your health.

A large wedding cake in the center of which was a monogram "G. W. B. 1871-1917" adorned the table. Fifty large American Beauty roses and fifty white carnations were placed on either side of the cake. The different rooms were beautifully decorated with poinsettias and lilies. In the receiving line were Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. Horace Main, Mrs. Waterman Brown, Mrs. Hawkes and Miss Helen Main. Vocal and instrumental solos were rendered. There also were a number of selections by Elliott Bingham's orchestra.
